

JULIE GOODWIN

JULIE GOODWIN HOST OF BREAKFAST ON STAR 104.5

Julie Goodwin is the epitome of the busy Australian mum and is the nation's favourite home cook. In 2009, a record-breaking 4 million Australians tuned in to watch her become the first ever winner of 'MasterChef'.

Viewers loved her then and so it seems, so do listeners of Star 104.5 now.

A wicked sense of humour and as humble as you could want, Julie sits perfectly between Craig and Rabbit as she provides a perfect balance with her life experiences.

Before she became one of Australia's best-selling authors; regular guest on Nine's breakfast show 'Today' and columnist for Australian Women's Weekly, Julie spent many years presenting workshops in schools across before working at a juvenile detention centre on Sydney's Central Coast.

Mum to 3 big boys, Julie and her husband Michael are still heavily involved in the community working for those who need a hand.

She's a good egg this one... join Julie Goodwin with Craig and Rabbit on Star 104.5.
