

Nova 106.9's Ash, Luttsy & Susie O'Neill breakfast show

Nova 106.9's beloved breakfast show features Ash, Luttsy & Susie O'Neill navigating the early hours of each day discussing news, sports, entertainment, life hacks and random fun facts; in an authentic, light-hearted and humorous way.

These three, who are good friends in real life, always have something to say. Ash Bradnam spins a great yarn, Luttsy is always living his best life and Australia may know Susie "Madame Butterfly" O'Neill as an Olympic icon, but Nova listeners know Susie as the trivia queen. Susie challenges listeners daily in the "Smarter than Suze" trivia quiz, demonstrating her famous competitiveness alongside her ability to retain pointless information.

Plenty of others join in on the fun too, with listeners and guests regularly calling in for a chat which keeps the content random and real.

Come hang out with Ash, Luttsy & Susie O'Neill every Monday to Friday, from 6-9am. It's the best way to kickstart your day.

Or if you can't join live, you can download their daily podcast, which has a whole lot of stuff that can't make it to air!
