

Nova's Chrissie Swan

Chrissie Swan can be heard in Afternoons as host of her own national radio show, The Chrissie Swan Show, weekdays from 2pm to 4pm on the Nova Network.

For over 20 years Chrissie has graced Australian television screens and radio airwaves, showcasing her relatable personality, quick wit, off-the-cuff antics and her ability to bring an understanding and personal touch to her audience both on and off air. One of Australia's most popular personalities, Chrissie has hosted several #1 FM breakfast shows including seven years as co-host of Nova 100's breakfast show.

The Chrissie Swan Show will feature everything that listeners love about Chrissie, from hilarious and relatable stories from her own life, popular benchmark segments - Swan's Singalong, Mystic Chrissie, and Celeb Stuff - and listeners who will continue to play a role in her show, sharing their own yarns and tales.

Chrissie loves music as much as our audience - her show will be full of music while allowing listeners to have a laugh and be entertained without any long boring chat in the afternoon.
